

Grant Writing Seminar:

The Basics for Graduate Students and Post-Docs

Presented by:
Lesley Oliver, KAES Associate Director
CAFE Research Office

Friday, March 13, 2020
Noon to 2:00 p.m.
B52 Garrigus Building

Your future career may require you to seek funding from government agencies, non-profits and other organizations. This can be an intimidating and overwhelming endeavor, but some basic knowledge can help demystify the process.

Please join us for an introduction to the grant writing process. Topics covered in this overview include finding the right funding opportunity, components of a typical proposal, and strategies for success. The program will be most relevant for graduate students and post docs from any discipline preparing for careers in academia and the nonprofit sector.

*Organized by your Grad Student Success Team
Co-sponsored by the Offices of the Associate Dean for Research and the Associate Dean for Instruction*

A pizza lunch will be provided.

NO SIGN UP IS REQUIRED.
