

College of Agriculture, Food & Environment Research Office
2014 Prestigious Research Paper Award

The College of Agriculture, Food and Environment Research Office solicits nominations for the 2014 Prestigious Research Paper Award in the amount of $1,000 to be presented to a College of Agriculture, Food and Environment faculty member based on the most prestigious research paper published during the 2010-2014 fiscal years (July 1, 2009 – June 30, 2014), while employed at UK.

Faculty members should be nominated by his or her peers or departmental chair and endorsed by the chair. The winner of the 2014 Prestigious Research Paper Award will be chosen by a committee appointed by the Associate Dean for Research. The award will be presented at the Celebration of Land-Grant Research Lecture.

Nominations will be judged by scientific merit, citation of the article, and impact factor and prestige of the journal, as well as other distinctive criteria provided by the nominator.

Nominees must hold a position in a faculty title series and cannot hold administrative positions such as director or chair. Nominees cannot receive this award two years in a row.
